

“THIS IS PHILIP KIM, AKA PHIL WIZARD, MEMBER OF TEAM CANADA.”

When you see me on the world stage, you’re seeing me in my element, doing something I love. What you don’t see is all the hard work that it took to get here. Growing up as a kid, me and my crew would breakdance on the streets of Vancouver, trying to raise enough money to support ourselves and keep chasing our dreams. Paris 2024 will be the first time breaking is showcased at the Olympic Games. This is my chance to become a part of Olympic history. My breakdancing story started as a kid chasing his dreams. Now my next chapter is going to be big.”
